- ¹ Transactions/Debit Transactions include: withdrawals, transfers, cheques, pre-authorized payments, bill payments and Debit Payment purchases. For High Interest TFSA Savings Accounts, a debit transaction does not include a Debit Payment Purchase. For Debit Payment purchases at merchants outside of Canada who accept Visa Debit, the transaction amount will be converted to Canadian dollars based on the foreign exchange rate charged to TD Canada Trust and will include an additional fee equal to 2.5% of the converted amount. For NYCE® Debit Payment purchases, included in the currency exchange cost will be a conversion fee which is calculated by adding an additional 250 basis points to the interbank U.S. dollar exchange rate. For example, on a purchase of $10 U.S. with an exchange rate of 1.3 the transaction amount will be $13.25 CDN ($10 x 1.325). For Interac® e-Transfers, an additional charge is applicable. Deposit transactions are free.
- ² Handling fees are in addition to the applicable transaction fee. For foreign currency withdrawals performed at ATMs outside of Canada, the exchange rate includes an amount equal to 2.5% of the converted amount.
- ³ The applicable balance must be maintained each day of the applicable month to entitle you to the waiver of the Monthly Fee for Chequing Accounts; the waiver of the Transaction Fee and Handling Fee (except for the foreign ATM handling fee) for Savings Accounts and/or Record keeping fee where indicated.

Our Hold Funds Policy

When you deposit a cheque or other payment instrument ("Instrument") to your personal deposit account, either at a branch or through the Green Machine® ATM, you may not be able to access the full amount of the funds from that deposit immediately, if that deposit is subject to a "hold". Your access to those funds, or a portion of them, will be restricted. You will not be able to withdraw money from those funds being held, and we will not pay any of your cheques or pre-authorized debits from those funds until the end of the hold period.

Hold funds decisions will be different for each customer. We will take into account factors such as the length of time you have dealt with TD Canada Trust and the amount of funds already in your account. The decision will also vary depending on the institution on which the Instrument has been drawn, as well as the amount and the issuer of the Instrument.

The duration of the hold period will be for the following number of business days¹:

	Maximum²
Cheques or other Instruments issued in Canadian dollars that are encoded with magnetic ink character recognition, are not damaged or mutilated, are drawn on a Canadian financial institution including TD Canada Trust and deposited to:
• Accounts opened less than 90 days	5
• Accounts opened greater than 90 days:
- Cheques up to and including $1500.00	4
- Cheques greater than $1500.00	5
Cheques or other Instruments issued in U.S. dollars drawn on a Canadian Financial Institution	5
Cheques or other Instruments drawn on a U.S. financial institution	15 ³
Cheques or other Instruments drawn on a financial institution located outside of Canada or the U.S.	30 ³

We may extend the maximum hold period if we have reasonable grounds to believe there may be illegal or fraudulent activity in relation to the account or if the cheque or other Instrument is dated at least 6 months prior to the date of the deposit.

When does the hold period begin? For in-branch deposits, the calculation of the hold period begins on the first business day following your deposit. For ATM deposits, it begins on the second business day. For example, if the deposit is made in-branch on Monday, the hold period begins on Tuesday. If the deposit was made at the ATM, the hold period begins on Wednesday. For in-branch deposits made on Friday, Saturday or Sunday, the hold begins on Monday; if deposited at the ATM, the hold period begins on Tuesday.

After the expiry of the hold period, you may access the funds. However, our release of the funds to you does not mean that the cheque or other Instrument cannot be returned for another reason. If it is returned after the hold period, we may charge the amount of the cheque or other Instrument to your account.

² The maximum hold period does not apply to a deposit to a Small Business Banking customer with authorized credit of less than $1 million if we have reasonable grounds to believe that there is a material increased credit risk.

³ These hold periods are estimates and apply where we have credited the funds to your account. We may extend such hold periods if payment for the cheques or other Instruments has not been received by us from the U.S. or foreign financial institution within that initial maximum hold period.
